Dick The Bruiser, David Von Erich & George Wells
W.
Ox Baker, Bob Brown & Alfred Hayes
(1st - The Bruiser's team won this fall when Brown tossed Von Erich over the top rope, to earn a DQ.)
(2nd - Wells bounced off the ropes and pinned Hayes with a flying top spread.)
Dory Funk, Jr. Drew Dick Murdoch - D.C.O.R.
(1st - Murdoch pinned Funk,Jr., after a flying elbow drop from the second rope.)
(2nd - Funk, Jr. over Murdoch by submission with the spinning toe-hold.)
(3rd - Murdoch started this fall with one boot off, due to the pain that was inflicted on him in the previous fall. Murdoch did not want to stay in the ring; Funk, Jr. was out of the ring also. Both men were then counted out, outside of the ring.)

Note: The above card was very exciting from start to finish. Attending this card with me were two other New York Correspondents, Bill Hill and Terry Justice. We enjoyed the card very much.

In the recent tournament in West Germany, some stars from North America such as John Quinn, Salvatore Bellomo (known in North America as Salvatore Martino), Pez Whatley and Moose Morowski, went over to compete.

A promotional war is taking place in Puerto Rico. Each promotion is trying to top the other in getting the better talent. On one card such stars as the Von Erich Brothers, Mil Mascaras, Dos Caras and and Roger Kirby appeared. The following week the other promotions booked such stars as Jose Lothario, Pedro Morales and The Monroe Brothers.

On October 7, 1979, in Indianapolis, Indiana, Dick The Bruiser and Spike Huber defeated Paul Christy and Roger Kirby for the W.W.A. Tag Belts. Billy Graham, on October 8, 1979, defeated Pat McGinnis for the C.W.A. World title, in Memphis, Tennessee. Hector Guerrero has come to the Memphis, Tennessee area and is taking on all challengers.

Ray Stevens and Mike Graham are the proud owners of the Florida tag titles. In a recent bout they defeated the Japanese duo of Mr. Hito and Mr. Sakurada to take the championship.

Ernie Ladd and Ole Anderson defeated The Crusher and Tommy Rich for the Georgia tag belts. Since then Anderson has turned fan favorite and split with Ladd. At the present time the Georgia tag belts are vacant.

On October 22, 1979, in Madison Square Garden in New York City, Ivan Putski and Tito Santana defeated Johnny and Jerry Valiant for the W.W.F. tag titles. Afa and Sika have come into the W.W.F. under the guidance of Lou Albano and are being billed as The Samoans. A few years back they wrestled on the I.W.A. TV cards as fan favorites and were billed as the Islanders.
